CONTENTS.

PAGES

THE RELIGIOUS VALUE OF CHRISTIAN DOCTRINE. By F. BONIFAS, - - - - - - - 1–23
Revue Chrétienne.

RUDOLPH STIER AND HIS WRITINGS, - - 23–39; 49–82
London Quarterly Review.

THE APOSTACY OF FATHER HYACINTHE. FROM A FRENCH ROMAN CATHOLIC POINT OF VIEW, - - - 40–45
Annales de Philosophie Chrétienne.

THE DISTINCTIVE CHARACTER OF OLD TESTAMENT SCRIPTURE, - - - - - - - - 83–109
British and Foreign Evangelical Review.

COMTE ON THE PHILOSOPHY OF THE HISTORY OF CHRISTIANITY. By B. F. WESTCOTT, - - - 110–136
Contemporary Review.

REVISION OF THE AUTHORIZED VERSION OF THE BIBLE, 137–176
British Quarterly Review.

RECENT CHRISTIAN BIOGRAPHY.—JAMES HAMILTON AND WILLIAM CHALMERS BURNS, - - - - 177–202
British and Foreign Evangelical Review.

THE CORRUPTION OF CHRISTIANITY BY PAGANISM IN THE LAST AGE OF THE ROMAN EMPIRE, - - - 203–221
Contemporary Review.

HENRY AINSWORTH, - - - - - - 225–240
British and Foreign Evangelical Review.

331255

PAGES

SCHMID'S BIBLICAL THEOLOGY OF THE NEW TESTAMENT, 249–284
London Quarterly Review.

THE TWO TESTAMENTS IN THEIR RELATIONS TO EACH OTHER, - - - - - - 286–309
British and Foreign Evangelical Review.

NON-SELF-CONSCIOUSNESS—THE SECRET OF SIMPLICITY OF CHARACTER, - - - - - 310–324
British and Foreign Evangelical Review.

SECOND PART.

THE BIBLICAL THEOLOGY OF THE NEW TESTAMENT. By J. J. VAN OOSTERZEE, Professor in the University of Utrecht. Translated from the Dutch, - - 1–266